

Running for the Board of Directors

John Lamb: Has enjoyed serving on the Board and would gladly serve again. There are contentious times but he has tried to be transparent as a Board Member. Would like to do something about our aging facility.

Brad Cayko: Thinks we have a beautiful golf course but believes the Club needs an upgrade. Refinery Union Representative.

Chris Verlanic: Wants to make Laurel the best Club. Wants to talk about all of the options. Is a good Club, could be great. Director of customer relations, experience managing & co-owning truck brokerage. Familiar maintaining financial reports.

Running for the Board of Directors

John Galt: Has ideas to make it a better Club and would like to share those ideas. Thinks the Club needs some better facilities. Believes we need to look toward 30 years from now.
Head of Finance & Operations Bitterroot Capital Advisors LLC.

Bill Tiefenthaler: Agrees we need to do something but thinks it needs to be scaled back. Previously part of a team at Exxon Refinery that supervised the budget for a portion of the refinery.

Jim Murphy: Would like to give back. Thinks we need to do something. Membership needs to have a voice. Would like to have a part of making it better. Member for 27 years, ran 3 businesses, knowledge of P & L statements.

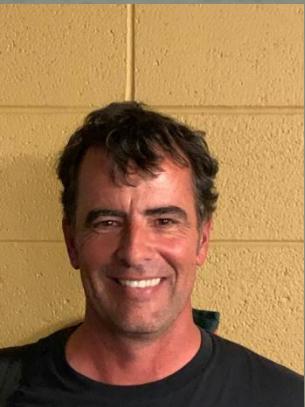

Running for the Board of Directors

Barry Rowlison: Has been a member for 17 years would like to give back to the Club. Is here for the membership. Experience as former business owner, teacher, contractor.

Jim Ouren: Would like to be on the Board so that members know what's going on in the meetings. The present Board has lost touch with the majority of the membership. Large capital expenditures need to be voted on separate from the normal operating budget. 25 year member.

Drake Webinger: Long time member, has experience on the Board through the irrigation & bunker projects, would like to focus on the course & do something about the Clubhouse.
